

“ASIANET”QUARTERLY INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS EDUCATION PROGRAM

The Asian American Business Assistance Center (AABAC) hosts its first “ASIANet” Quarterly international business education program during “Community College Workforce Alliance’s Center for Entrepreneurship’s Annual Small Business Resources Day” with three international business seminars. The event will be moderated by a team of Vietnamese, Indian, Iranian, Chinese, and Pakistani American international business leaders from Central Virginia.

Speakers:

Tom Garnett, of VEDP,
Dr. Suri Ganeriwala, of SpectraQuest,
Jim Huddle, of the Global Law Group,
Rumy Mohta, of Richmond Travel.

Topics:

Fundamentals of Exporting and Importing,
International Business Resources,
Special Report on the China And India Markets.

Location: Advantech , 501 East Franklin Street, Richmond.

Date: Friday June 3, 2005

Time: 10AM-11AM, 11-12AM, and 1PM-2PM.

COST: FREE

Pre register to attend one (1) or all sessions. Contact: Ms. Margaret Tchen at Tel: 804 798 3975
Email: aabac@comcast.net